Profile

Welcome to Ansbach University of Applied Sciences!

Ansbach UAS is a young, modern, dynamic university situated in the metropolitan area of Nuremberg. It offers practical study programmes in different disciplines like business, informatics, multimedia, engineering and life sciences. An excellent student teacher ratio, small study groups with individual mentoring as well as modern equipment in lecture halls, labs and computer rooms are key to the academic success of our students.

In addition, a high service orientation offered by the different facilities and services (Student Service, Student Advisory Service, Career Service and International Office) as well as the pleasant, friendly atmosphere, safe surroundings and the high quality of living make students feel at home. A strong focus on employability and close ties with companies in the region enable students ensure that our students do especially well when it comes to finding employment after graduation. In Ansbach you can study successfully and feel at home.
